Kontakt C-N.1 A very few college professors might think of the need to create a list of readings based on the sequence of your courses, but that is an extremely rare occurrence, and I am not aware of any professor who does that. When courses do have text books, they are the ones that will need to be checked in comparison to the course syllabi, so the list of readings is also a syllabus. But there is no list for the syllabus, the last syllabus is in advance when you are still taking the course. So the last syllabus is your cheat sheet for the class. So if you are currently taking the class, then
